Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services

Photo Contest

Rules & Entry Information

Eligibility: All photos must have been taken at:

- A city-owned park or facility, which include city parks (including boat launches, picnic shelters and campground), Moses Lake Museum & Art Center, Surf 'n Slide Water Park, Ice/Roller Rink, BMX track, skate park, community garden, The Learning Center, Larson Playfield, and Paul Lauzier Athletic Complex
- Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services sponsored activity, program, or event hosted by a non-city facility (ex: golf lesson hosted at local golf course).

Images: Photographers agree by entering contest to give permission to City of Moses Lake Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services to use their images in publications. Photos may be displayed in exhibits and exhibited online.

Entry Details: Limit of 3 entries per person. Photos must meet all criteria to be eligible:

- ✓ Photos can be submitted via email only in digital format to info@cityofml.com.
- ✓ Photos must be in full-size jpeg format with no watermarks or signatures on the image.
- ✓ Photos must be accompanied by an entry form, so please include entry form details (below) in the email.

Moses Lake Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services reserves the right to not accept photos that do not meet the criteria or are deemed inappropriate.

Contest is free to enter. Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services will review and select photos for 2022 brochure(s) and reach out to the winners to let them know which brochure photo(s) will be featured in. Additionally, approved submissions will be displayed in the Community Gallery at the Moses Lake Museum & Art Center January 7 – 29, 2022.
